

Things You Need To Know

ABOUT UPCOMING MEDICAID ENROLLMENT CHANGES

The rules regarding your Medicaid coverage will be changing April 1, 2023 and we at ClaimAid want to ensure that you are able to keep your coverage without interruption. In the coming months you may be receiving letters from FSSA letting you know that you need to update your information with them.

Your ClaimAid advocate is here to help you.

Reach out to a ClaimAid advocate if you've experienced any of the following life events since you last applied for coverage:

- You've moved to a new address
- You've had a change in employment or income
- You have a new phone number
- Someone has moved in or out of your household.

In addition, please reach out if you experience any of the following:

- You need assistance obtaining documents such as a birth certificate, pay stubs, etc.
- You receive a notice letting you know you need to pay premium/contribution
- You are notified that your coverage is ending
- You receive any notice you don't understand
- You've received notice from a federal or state Medicaid office requesting documentation

Your ClaimAid advocate can assist you with:

- Obtaining needed documentation
- Updating your contact information with FSSA
- Submitting your verification to FSSA
- Securing assistance with making payments
